Conference Speaker

Rev. Rhonda Brown

Women's Director, Florida Church of God

Rhonda was born and raised in Northern Ohio and met and married her husband, Timothy E. Brown, in her home state. Rhonda Brown and Bishop Brown have been in full-time ministry since they married. Early on, they served in evangelism and the next 20+ years they served in pastoral ministry in Alabama and Tennessee. In 2002, the Browns moved from a pastorate in Birmingham, AL to positions in the Alabama State Offices. They have served the Church of God as State Administrative Bishop and Women's Ministries Director, respectively, in the Rocky Mountain Region (2006-2012), Missouri (2012-2016), Texas (2016-2018) and were appointed to Florida-Tampa State Executive Offices at the 2018 General Assembly.

Rhonda has a love for Women's Ministries and desires to see women find their purpose, significance, and true identity in Christ. She has a true passion to foster an atmosphere of connection, discipleship and spiritual encouragement. Rhonda is an Ordained Minister in the Church of God and she speaks at state conferences, retreats, and local churches. She holds a Master's Degree in Community/Agency Counseling from the University of Alabama at Birmingham and graduated from Lee University with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Psychology. Currently, Rhonda serves on the Board of Directors for Peniel Residential Treatment Center and the Heart of Florida Youth Ranch.

Rhonda has two sons: Brock, father of their only grandson, Rhys; and, Brandon, married to Angel.
